WELCOME MESSAGE

Over thirty years ago, Asian American, Pacific Islander, and Native American professionals in philanthropy came together to build a new vision for power in the sector. From this vision, our organizations were born: Asian Americans & Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy (AAPIP) and Native Americans in Philanthropy (NAP).

Our two organizations are coming together in Seattle on June 26th - 29th to gather institutional and individual funders, movement leaders, field experts, and professional practitioners for three days. We are intentional in calling this a gathering to honor the many cultures who share this word in their respective languages. The ‘Ōlelo Hawai‘i (Hawaiian Language) refer to it as ‘aha or ho‘olaule‘a. Our Tlingit Alaskan relatives call a gathering such as this woosh kaanáx wutuda.aadí. We will gather and honor Tsetswatil in the Coastal Salish Hul‘qumi‘num language which means “Working together for common benefit.”

Now is the time to deepen your connection with the many cultures and communities in our networks and learn how they are leading, innovating, and honoring philanthropy. This is the first time members of the Asian American, Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander, Indigenous, and Native American communities and Nations are coming together to host such a gathering. Our collective memberships and networks will join us to create space for all to expand their individual and institutional practices that advance the work of racial equity in philanthropy. It will also be a space to celebrate our shared origin story, our close partnerships, and celebrate our many cultures and communities.

ABOUT THIS GATHERING

Please accept our invitation to join us in solidarity as we explore the ways that philanthropy is working to build trusting partnerships and support the authority and decision-making power of our diverse groups. We offer a wide range of sponsorship opportunities that are available for you to support this gathering. We will also identify opportunities throughout the conference to highlight sponsor contributions.

This gathering will be three days of peer-to-peer learning, community-building, information sharing, opportunities to learn from local cultural and nonprofit leaders, plenaries, artistic offerings, and more. Participants will leave this gathering inspired and ready with new tools to help our communities advocate for a more equitable philanthropic sector. Don't delay in maximizing your organization's visibility by sponsoring today!

AT A GLANCE

- Attend a three-day event that offers joint programming, as well as sessions specific to each of our organizational communities. This programming will include distinguished guests and plenary thought leaders, community-building opportunities, and breakout sessions.
- Immerse yourself in inspiring artistic and cultural experiences, excursions, and learn from our rich network of Native and AAPI-led nonprofits in the Seattle area.
- Build long-lasting, collaborative relationships within these communities.

ABOUT AAPIP

AAPIP is a justice-minded, national philanthropy-serving organization that provides unique community spaces for Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, Pacific Islanders, and allies in philanthropy. Our mission is to expand and mobilize resources for AANHPI communities to build a more just and equitable society in solidarity with all communities of color.

ABOUT NAP

Native Americans in Philanthropy (NAP) promotes equitable and effective philanthropy in Native communities. With more than 30 years of experience, we work closely with our counterpart organizations advocating for Tribal communities. The cornerstone of our work is our relatives and our networks. We support several communities of stakeholders that work together to build knowledge, community, priorities, and power in the sector. These networks include Native professionals in philanthropy, elected Tribal leaders, Native youth leaders, Native philanthropic executives and board members, and Native nonprofit leaders.
